2nd session: 'Careers beyond Academia'

Are you a PhD student or postdoc?

The Agrotecnio CERCA Center, in collaboration with the University of Lleida (UdL), would like to invite you to the second "Early Career Researchers' Forum". It will take place the 24th November at 12.00 p.m. in the ETSEA Campus (Sala de Graus, Building 1). In this occasion, the event will be about "Careers beyond Academia". Three external guests will share their experiences on the importance of doing a PhD and the different career opportunities it offers beyond Academia:
